

Pembroke Pines at the movies

While we are thrilled to once again open the Clubhouse Theater for movies, it is of the utmost importance that we do so safely. A combination of safety protocols and experience enhancements have been put into place which will provide a safe environment for those who choose to attend. Please visit the Clubhouse website for the complete list at www.centuryvillageppines.com/covid-19-update.html

KNIVES OUT PG-13, 2 HOURS, 11 MIN.

Knives Out is a gleeful whodunit full of humor, filled with a star-studded cast of characters and reminiscent of an Agatha Christy novel. When the wealthy patriarch of an eccentric family dies, a mysterious investigator along with the police determine it is murder. Everyone in the family has a motive and the fun is in guessing whodunit! The movie stars Daniel Craig, Christopher Plummer, Chris Evans, Ana de Armas, Jamie Lee Curtis, Michael Shannon, Don Johnson and Toni Collette.

1917 R, 1 HOUR, 59 MIN.

(RATED R FOR VIOLENCE AND SOME DISTURBING IMAGES.)

It's April, 1917 on the western front of World War I and two British soldiers are sent out to deliver an urgent message to an isolated regiment of 1,600 soldiers in this hard-hitting, historical war drama. Time is of the essence since the regiment is walking into a trap and the two soldiers' journey is fraught with danger as they pass through enemy territory. The film stars Dean-Charles Chapman, George MacKay, Daniel Mays, Colin Firth and Benedict Cumberbatch.
